From the Ends of the Earth

July 2019, Abbotsford, CANADA

We have been quite busy these past three months. It was so good to see so many of you dear friends and family. Our relationships have gone deeper and we have even made several new friends. It was fun to celebrate Canada Day with family in our passport country. Another great memory has been enjoying the cherries that God provided for us.

We have had a rather full schedule with speaking engagements all over the place. Thank you for those who prayed for journey mercies; God kept us safe in the many means of transportation we used. It was great to share what God has been doing in Cambodia and to encourage our Christian brothers and sisters in their job as “hope peddlers” here in Canada. We all have a task to do to expand God’s kingdom. It was a joy to spend time with the members of our partner churches. We spoke not only of theology, but also just chatted about hunting our fishing or the kind of food they prefer and what hobbies they enjoyed. Often, we found common ground and our friendship was strengthened. As we reported on our ministries and projects, it was reassuring to see genuine interest and desires for more frequent prayer requests. We look forward to sending news of answers to prayers.

One thing we asked for prayer about was for three of the students from the SR&DC that were taking their year four final exams. If they were not given a passing mark, they would have to repeat the year. They have all studied so hard. It would have been disheartening and embarrassing for them to have to start again. Praise the Lord all three of them passed. You may have heard me speak of Ravy (with the big smile), Leakhena who came to know Jesus at the SR&DC, and Lai who is currently the dorm leader. Please pray for these three as they determine what God’s plan is for them in the future.

Lai has been a very active part of an outreach team sent from the New Jerusalem church. He encourages the residents to be involved in actively sharing their faith. He goes and teaches with Chan, one of the unsaved guys who met Christ while at the dorm. The church leadership is quite impressed with Lai’s servant heart. We are lucky to have him leading the dorm.

On 20 June 2019 we welcomed Nash Jeffrey Coston into our family. Stephanie did very well as did the whole family. He is very cute indeed.

Please be in prayer for the “Love Phnom Penh Festival” that will take place in November 2019. This year the focus of the group is on mobilization of pastor and leaders, individual and corporate prayer and outreach.

This is a great way that the body of Christ is reaching youth in Cambodia. You can find more information on their Facebook page.

The Global Advance Fund (GAF) houses and feeds International Workers worldwide. Your gifts marked: “ENS – WORK – CAMBODIA” keep our extra curricular ministries running. If you would like to make a special donation for the Dorm Ministry in Phnom Penh, designate your gift to “Student Residence & Discipleship Centre”. You may send your donation online (www.cmacan.org/give), or through your local Alliance church. All North American donations are eligible for tax receipts
