KAC Factoids with Ron

A slice of time from 1943 until 1956, Sunday School attendance at Kindersley Alliance church exceeded the morning worship service attendance. I have not found an explicit explanation for this phenomenon.

Some of the factors contributing to this may include: additional Sunday Schools being held in schools around the district; a strong national Sunday School movement with standards and awards for local Sunday Schools; attendance by those from other churches whose morning services were at other hours on Sunday.
