KAC Factoids with Ron

I have enjoyed talking with various Kindersley Alliance church people in these past months.

Lorraine Willems talked about the Ruff family legacy. Her father, Herman Ruff, served on the church board for many years. She herself has worked within the Canadian Alliance over the years, including helping with the National Alliance Pray initiative. The family came from the Beadle area - my understanding is that the current drag racing track just east of town was on the Ruff land. Lorraine has been a historian for Saskatoon Circle Drive (University Drive) Alliance church and continues to look for archival information on pioneers in the Western Alliance Church history.

Then there was Dennis Keith. Dennis was dedicated as a child when his parents (from Sovereign, SK) attended KAC. He later became the pastor from 1968-1977. I served as assistant pastor with him from 1976-1977. Dennis began starting a church in Portage La Prairie before coming to Kindersley. For those of you who drive to Saskatoon often, you may have seen the Westgate Alliance church where he also pastored. He retired when he was early into his 60's and just celebrated his 80th birthday this past year. He affirms that KAC was one of his favourite pastorates (and I would venture to say this was the best!).

Many more "factoids" can be found in Ron Baker's new book, Living 20/20: Kindersley Alliance Church in Perspective, which can be purchased off of Amazon for $10, or $1.99 for a Kindle version.

You can also pick one up at the church. The suggested donation is $10.

As a further step in this factoid column's growth, I would like to interview, record, receive emails, get information from a number of people who have been a part of Kindersley Alliance Church - including those who currently attend. Along with the factoids, this information would be a great "next" book in our series on Kindersley Alliance Church.

Here are some of the questions I would love to hear about:

- When did you attend KAC?
- Why did you come to KAC?
- What was your background before attending KAC?
- Who at KAC was influential in helping you learn about Jesus? How?
- What is a striking theological/spiritual/practical insight you had at KAC?
 - What was your favourite thing about attending KAC?
 - Anything you know about KAC that no one else does?
 - Anything else???

I would also love to get a picture that could be included with this information.

Thanks!
